

Framingham State University Center for Global Education and the Department of Geography Present:

AMSTERDAM NETHERLANDS

Amsterdam is a beautiful city of canals, flowers, and art, as well as the cultural heart of the Netherlands.

Amsterdam, often called the Venice of the North, is a city of beautiful canals, quaint historic neighborhoods and some of the most famous museums in the world. In the capital city of the Netherlands you can visit Anne Frank's house; take a canal boat ride along the beautiful waterways; stroll through charming urban parks and enjoy the vibrant international scene of one of Europe's great cities!

Tour price includes airfare, hotels, all transfers, Welcome Dinner, American-style breakfast daily and walking tours.
