Trip details and costs for course participants

There will be an additional charge for various activities related to course content while in The Netherlands. We are planning on this amount to NOT exceed $200. We currently are preparing these planned activities and we will know before final payment is due what these costs will be exactly.

Currently we are planning on two days of these course related activities, Thursday, July 12 and Saturday, July 14.

We hope to include:

- Day trip to the fascinating city of The Hague to visit the United Nations International Court of Justice at the Peace Palace, as well as a guided tour by professor and city planner Albertine Van Diepen
- Canal tour highlighting the history of Amsterdam as a worldwide financial and trading center
- Exploration of the multiple systems to prevent flooding in a country which is partially below sea level
- Tour of Amsterdam with Marc Hanou, former assistant to the Mayor of Amsterdam and current unit manager at the Netherlands Environmental Assessment Agency
- Visit to the Anne Frank House and Museum

We are also pursuing additional funding mechanisms to try and defray some of these additional costs.

No promises here, except that we are trying to find ways to make these travel courses as cost effective as possible!
